

Worldwide network of professionals specialized in prior judicial and legal debt collection

Become a member and receive the following benefits:

- Worldwide professional network of debt collectors, covering more than 70 countries. The members have long, solid experiences within debt collection
- LIC provides expertise in the legal systems, rules of enforcement, customs and practices in our member countries, eliminating risk and creating a level playing field upon which to trade
- Offering both Business to Business (B2B) and Business to Consumer/Individuals (B2C)
- LIC members are experts in the language and cultures of their respective countries
- LIC members can help you find acceptable solutions, even in disputed files and offer you full cost control. Never start of any legal action without permission from the principal in beforehand
- Offering fixed / discounted prices – You do not need to spend time and effort to negotiate prices
- New members are welcomed and allowed to:
 - Send out a short company presentation, presenting their services for all the members
 - Present their company / services on the next general Assembly for all the delegates
- League International for Creditors was founded for more than 60 years ago and all members are approved by the LIC Board. To be a member you need good references and a healthy economy
- General Assembly every year – come and meet your colleagues to Network
 - Lectures within our exciting field (Internal and external)
 - New members presentation
 - Knowledge about different countries framework
 - Information about important new regulations, directive proposals that may affect our debt collection industry
 - Wonderful General assembly with good friends, networking, humor and nice dinners
 - Discounted General assembly price for members

- LIC helps your customer to minimize their losses at a competitive price
- We try to get the costs paid by debtor and claim interest from due date until the debt is paid in accordance with local laws and regulations
- LIC membership will increase the number of files you get against debtors in your home country. Especially if you offer good fixed conditions.
- Other services many of the LIC members offer:
 - Legal and extra judicial assistance – access to extensive resources
 - Visiting debtors, Call center, Credit information, Asset search, Address search, etc.
- LIC website with news and member register. Possibility to share information, from a marketing point of view, in relation to each members professional activity, Regular articles and information of interest for our members.
- For more details see our website: <http://www.lic-international.com> or contact us

League International for Creditors (LIC) is a worldwide network of professional debt collectors offering their best services and fixed prices.

Additionally, LIC is a channel used to spread experiences and information of the members and their services.

Try us!

Contact details:

E-mail: licensec@gmail.com
Phone number: 0047 47 09 51 31
Website: www.lic-international.com

Postal address:
League International for Creditors (LIC)
Ms. Veronica P. Haga
Hoyenhallveien 101
NO-0678 OSLO / Norway

Contact person:

General Secretary: Ms. Veronica P. Haga